

REHMUND, JOHN CHARLES went home to be with the Lord on May 25, 2010. He was born on October 30, 1914 in Dayton Ohio, graduated from Stivers High School in Dayton Ohio and went on to attend the University of Dayton. He received a Bachelor of Science in Education in 1941 and a Master of Arts in 1949, both from the University of Dayton. In 1949 he moved to Haines City FL to begin a teaching career at Haines City High School where he was the Junior Class advisor, Key Club advisor, taught Science, Chemistry, Physics, Sociology, History, Social Studies, Diversified Cooperative Education Program and was the local representative for the Adult Education Program for Veterans Education. In 1953 he moved to Winter Park FL to teach at Winter Park High School as the coordinator for the Diversified Cooperative Education Program and was Junior Class Sponsor at various times. In 1967, he was appointed as Assistant Director of the Evening Division of The Orange County Vocational School. During the time from 1953 to 1967 he attended various classes during the summer months at Florida State University. He served on the board and was treasurer of the Florida Cooperative Education Association, member Orange County Classroom Teachers Association and Kiwanis Club He was one of the first 100 members of the Central Florida Educators Credit Union. After retiring in 1975, he was a member of the Orange County Retired Educators Association where he was Legislative Chairman for the association and was also a member of the Florida Retired Educators Association. He was a Little League Baseball coach when the Winter Park Little League baseball was first started around the mid 1950's. He had the nickname of "The Colonel" from friends and associates. He also served as assistant treasurer for St. Richards Episcopal Church for 10 years. After his wife Dorothy passed away in 1985, he chose to live in the same home that they shared until his heart attack in 2008. After that he came to live with his son Chuck, wife Pam and son Craig until he became ill in October 2009. He made the most of his time with the family, never complained and was blessed by the family and caregiver that took care of him. John is survived by his son Charles; three grandchildren, Chris, Anthony and Craig; four great grandchildren, Christine, Ellie, Shelby and Cameron. Funeral services will be held Saturday, June 5, 2010 at 10 a.m. at St. Richards Episcopal Church 5151 Lake Howell Road, Winter Park, FL. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the American Cancer Society of the American Heart Association . Baldwin-Fairchild Funeral Home Goldenrod Chapel, 7520 Aloma Avenue Winter Park, FL 32792 407-677-5091